PRESS RELEASE

UOB Indonesia Wins Alpha Best Structured & Commodity Trade Solution of the Year in Southeast Asia

Jakarta, 20 February 2014 - PT Bank UOB Indonesia (UOBI) has scored another achievement by winning a prestigious award at the 2013 Annual Alpha Southeast Asia Deal & Solution Awards for the category of Best Structured & Commodity Trade Solution of The Year in Southeast Asia.

This award from Alpha Southeast Asia magazine is given for the success of the Bank, including in developing trade solutions that help customers save up to 30% interest costs by providing an alternative working capital directly connected to structured trade finance.

"In addition, UOBI is also developing unique structured trades to meet the needs of companies in Indonesia, such as for the iron, textile, oil & gas, chemical, infrastructure, commodity, or export-import-oriented finished goods industries," said Wong Kartyono, Head of Transaction Banking PT Bank UOB Indonesia.

Wong added that with more than 80 years of experience in the banking industry, UOBI has become a trusted partner in providing a variety of innovative and reliable trade finance products and services for all export-import and local trade business transaction needs.

In order to get closer to customers, UOBI is currently also presenting a Premier Trade Counter, which provides convenience for transactions through one-stop services, from document submission to payment. In addition, customers can enjoy time efficiency because documents submitted before 3pm will be processed on the same day. Premier Trade Counters are currently located in the cities of Jakarta, Surabaya and Medan.
